BIO

Andrew Pouget is a lifelong student of the law and vigilant advocate for justice. He understands that success is earned by hard work, determination, quality legal research, and framing arguments with precision and articulation.

His passion for law is the driving force that compels him to take the extra step, and he does not quit until he achieves the best possible result for his clients.

Since matriculating in 2018, Andrew has continued the firm's legacy of providing high-quality criminal defense to Sarasota, Bradenton and Tampa. Andrew's depth of legal knowledge and proficiency in legal writing provides an essential element to FLG's comprehensive approach to criminal defense, and his aptitude for appellate practice sets FLG apart as a full-service criminal defense firm in the SRQ area.

Tell us about yourself and your firm. Andrew graduated summa cum laude with a 4.0 GPA in the honors college of University of Detroit Mercy, boasting majors in philosophy, political science, and pre-law. A co-founder of Phi Alpha Delta, Andrew also served as President of the Political Science Association. In 2009 he graduated magna cum laude from Michigan State University College of Law, the only student to ever graduate with a concentration in criminal law while also receiving a certificate from the nationally renowned Geoffrey Fieger Trial Practice Institute. Andrew was a public defender before joining the Fowler Law Group where he serves as senior partner.
